Bubbles painting-Idk why, but bubbles are the single thing that makes every little kid ridiculously happy. Who says they get to have all the fun? Here's my attempt to bring that carefree joy to paper, let these bubbles remind you to take life a little less seriously today

Painted this thinking of those quiet train rides, just relaxing, watching the scenery glide by, and zoning out to the rhythmic choo-choo sounds. Honestly, nothing beats the peaceful vibe of a slow train journey so let's just ban cars already.
